1

Cigar and Whiskey

If there is anything classier, more manly or universally appreciated than a fine cigar and scotch whiskey... we haven't found it yet! The pairing of a rich Cuban cigar with a smooth decadent single malt Scotch Whiskey is as old as man-gifting itself! The best part is that EVEN IF the recipient doesn't like smoking or drinking, it is a present that will still be appreciated and kept for a special occasion. This is the safest, easiest and most timeless gift to give a man... ESPECIALLY when he is a man who seems to have everything!

Visit www.manpresent.com to check out our pre-made gift boxes that make this the easiest gift to give.

Why it's Hot:

Classic, timeless and uniformly loved even by non-smokers/drinkers!

Affordability: 8/10

Wow Factor: 10/10

Overall Rating: 9/10

2 Buy Him Flowers

Hmmmm for SOME men this can be a thoughtful gift, however you run the risk of having this bunch of flowers implying that the man is TOO in touch with his feminine side OR WORSE misconstrued as inappropriate.

This is especially the case when in a corporate work environment. Sexist? Maybe... however, we live in a society of symbols, and this, unfortunately may send a confusing one.

Probably avoid this unless you KNOW the recipient will love this present. Or if he in the closet.... about his love of horticulture!

Why it's Hot:

Easy... flower deliveries are a no brainer

Why its Not:

Has a high probability of missing the mark

Affordability: 8/10

Wow Factor: 3/10

Overall Rating: 5/10

Men LOVE experiences. Collecting adrenaline filled days versus collecting material 'things' is definitely high on a man's agenda. It might even tick off a bucket list item! The REAL question is WHAT experience will tickle his fancy, and what experience will be NEW!?

Could it be a hot lap in an F1 car? A hot air balloon? Diving with a great white shark? When choosing, ensure you know which experience will hit his hot buttons, and NOT send him into a melt down panic attack.

A delicate balance, but a dynamite present if you can get it right... for the right price.

Why it's Hot:

Experiences beat 'things'

Why its Not:

Getting the right experience is tricky

Affordability: 3/10

Wow Factor: 8/10

Overall Rating: 5/10

4 Porno Time Machine??

Now that we have your attention, this is a pretty unique idea. Find out the man's month/year of birth, go onto www.ebay.com and search for eg. Playboy/April/1979. The usual price is about $50 and in three weeks time, you have an UNFORGETTABLE present.

Obviously, not suitable for corporate, religious or otherwise conservative environments or recipients. Also, one must be aware of who might be in the vicinity upon the receiving and opening of said magazine. Could lead to some awkward conversations.

BUT if it is the right person, this is a CLASSIC present.

Why it's Hot:

....uhhhh I think you know

Why its Not:

On the controversial side of the spectrum

Affordability: 8/10

Wow Factor: 5/10

Overall Rating: 7/10

5 Gift Voucher

Ah yes... This old chestnut. Pretty much the easiest present you can give someone, but only a shade less lame than just giving them cash! Yes, you tick the box for present.

However, unless you absolutely NAIL the store (ie comic book store for a comic book nerd), this has a high likelihood of being forgettable.

Tread with caution here.

Why it's Hot:

Easy... like REALLY easy

Why its Not:

Rather impersonal

Affordability: 7/10

Wow Factor: 1/10

Overall Rating: 4/10

6 Call them and sing them a song!

This is great because it doesn't cost you a thing (well apart from a phone call!).

Whether it is a celebration of their birthday or new baby, an off the cuff serenade can be extremely memorable!

The trick is to make it either really good or really bad. Mediocre won't cut the mustard here.

Why it's Hot:

It's personal, and embarrassing for the singer

Why its Not:

Hard to get the balance between good and bad singing

Affordability: 10/10

Wow Factor: 3/10

Overall Rating: 6/10

7 Bake a cake

This is not a bad idea, as it shows not only that you care, BUT you care enough to prebake and transport a cake to personally deliver this to the recipient.

The challenges come with your skill level (or lack thereof).

Unless you are a very proficient baker, this can be a risky endeavour! Sunken cakes, not fitting the man's macros, or EVEN WORSE, messing up his blood sugar levels if he is a diabetic can make this gift a challenge to 'nail' Instagram style.

Why it's Hot:

It's personal and shows you care

Why its Not:

Unless you are a great baker, the end result is risky

Wow Factor: =5/10

Overall Rating: 6/10

8 Buy him some aftershave

This present is a great one if you know what the man wears! If the cologne is a hard to get one, or an expensive one, it can be an excellent present for a man.

HOWEVER, ensure it is one that he wears (and wants to continue wearing) or you could just set off his allergies, and annoy his wife or partner.

Cologne is in the same category as buying clothes. Awesome if you nail it, but can be lame if you miss the mark.

Why it's Hot:

It's personal, and shows you know him

Why its Not:

Smell is such a personal sensitive thing, it is easy to swing and miss

Affordability: 5/10

Wow Factor: 5/10

Overall Rating: 5/10
